Further information in regard to this issue of notes is given in a letter of Mr. Julius Rosenwald, President of the Company, from which we summarize as follows:

These Notes are the direct obligation of Sears, Roebuck and Co., and constitute the only lunded debt of the Company.

The proceeds of this issue will be applied to the reduction of current limilities, thereby not increasing present indebtedness.

The Company's outstanding capital stock at current quotations represents an equity of over $120,000,000, ranking junior to the notes.

Not earnings, after deducting all interest charges but before providing for Federal taxes, for the four years ended December 31. 1919, average $20,525,602, or about six times the maximum annual interest charges of $3,540,000 on the notes. The net earnings for the six months ended June 30, 1920, after deducting all interest charges but before providing for Federal taxes amount to $15,447,285,19.

Gross sales have increased from $51,011,536 in 1909 to $257 980,025 in 1919. The Trust Agreement requires the maintaining of quick assets equal to at least one and one-half times all liabilities, including these notes, and provides that no mortgage or other lien, except purchase money mortgages, may be placed on any of the assets of the

We offer these notes when, as and if issued and received by us, subject to prior sale and to approval of counsel:
